

ARTICLE XXIII

MEMBERSHIP IN ASSOCIATION NOT REQUIRED

Nothing contained in this Declaration, or in any of the provisions hereof, or in any governing rules, by-laws or articles of incorporation of Association or of any corporation or association to which any powers may hereafter be assigned under Paragraph XXI hereof is intended to or shall be construed to make membership in Association, or in any corporation or association to which any powers may be assigned, mandatory or a condition to holding title to or possession of any property in said subdivision.